The Get In Touch Foundation Announces October 16th 2009 as “GIT Your Pink On! Day”

October 7, 2009, Milford, Conn- The Get In Touch Foundation officially announces October 16th as “GIT Your Pink On!” Day.

Nationwide people across the country will join The Get In Touch Foundation in their crusade against breast cancer by wearing pink in support of “breast health” education in schools. Individuals, corporations, and municipalities have joined The Get In Touch Foundation by pledging their support of $1.00 per person to advocate for the The Get In Touch Foundation’s “Girls’ Program.” This program teaches girls to “get in touch” with their bodies through breast self-examination. Materials, including an interactive ‘Daisy Wheel’, explain and teach the importance of breast self-examination. The ‘Daisy Wheel’, is provided to girls in grades 5-12 when health educators discuss hygiene and the girls’ changing bodies.

“The Get In Touch Foundation is delighted that Connecticut Governor M. Jodi Rell, herself a breast cancer survivor, has issued a Proclamation declaring Friday, October 16th “GIT Your Pink On!” Day in the state of Connecticut. Oregon Governor Theodore R. Kulongoski has also proclaimed October 16, 2009 as "GIT Your Pink On!" Day in his state. From sea to shining sea, Get In Touch’s mission to “change the world one girl at a time” is well on its way! Please join us and wear pink in support of Breast Health!”

To participate in ‘GIT Your Pink On! Day’, businesses and individuals may sign up at www.getintouchfoundation.org by contacting The Get In Touch Foundation at 203.283.5127
